Easy Value Ordering.

More flexibility and convenience for your research

Conveniently pay for your order using the Eurofins Genomics EVOcard. The EVOcard is a prepaid card similar to a prepaid credit card.

With your EVOcard, you can pay for all your online orders. Your card will not be charged until your order has left our warehouse.

- Easy to get and simple to use

Obtaining an EVOcard is quick and easy. Just login at Genomic Shopping 2.0 and order your EVOcard by entering a name and the amount of money you wish to deposit. At your next purchase, simply select your EVOcard at checkout.

- Value for your money

The EVOcard is real value for money. It allows you to conveniently manage your research budget by providing an up-to-date balance overview. Through collective use of the EVOcard by members of your research team, you can consolidate your research funds and use it for the projects you choose.

- Order what you want, when you want it

Comfortably order the full range of DNA & RNA oligos, gene synthesis and DNA sequencing services and pay for them online with the EVOcard.
